CLAUSE DEFEATED

- Posters and pamphlets are great resources, but the best way to grow our programs and to share what happens in them is by word of mouth, and that means delegates sharing with friends and classmates and fellow parishioners. Staff can promote but so can delegates.
- Debate on Religious Freedom barely scratched the surface and is worth more conversation. Learn rights as Canadian citizens, about Charter of Rights and Freedoms, which gives fundamental freedom of thought and religion – though oppressions are faced by people living here and around the world.
- What does it mean for you to uphold the dignity of every human being, and to live with love in your everyday choices?
- In 1993 the Anglican Church of Canada apologized for its 33 residential schools across Canada. No residential school in our Diocese but plenty nearby, and still lots of work to do to reconcile our past with our future. As a starting point, visiting the Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada website – www.trc.ca – will provide lots of information.
- Justice making is about relationship. Letters without relationship may not be effective – must witness oppression wherever it happens but also explore ways to build relationships and find ways to enter into a dialogue with our brothers and sisters in Jamaica.
- Thank you for your work throughout this weekend – for the motions, the debate, the perspective, the discernment. It has been thoughtful, moving and meaningful.
- Thanks to MCs and Chair for their work.

MOTION TO ADJOURN

13) Communicating Youth Ministry Programs

WHEREAS: The way youth communicate is no longer through traditional social media;

AND WHEREAS: Not all parishes pass information about Diocesan youth events on to the youth;

AND WHEREAS: The events offered by the Diocese of Niagara are extremely valuable and sustain our faith.

BE IT RESOLVED THAT:

1. Pamphlets and resources for events such as NYC, YLTP, embark, etc. should be made readily available and clearly visible.
2. Parishes will add youth ministry events and programs to bulletins each week/month to invite involvement and share information.

CLOSING REMARKS

MCs

- We have signup sheets for Youth Synod Council as well as to help plan the Pride event.

Chair

- I’m very proud of everyone for participation – speaking and voting.
- There will be impact – a pebble in a lake creates ripples.

Chancellor

- It is wonderful to have Youth Synod Council back in action.
- The tasks given to Youth Synod Council are substantial, but a good start, and the new body will equip the work of Youth Synod.
- Points of clarification were helpful. Participation was not passive; it was taken seriously.
- Thanks to those who spoke from the heart and were vulnerable; sharing experience lived and otherwise as well as perspectives.
- Brett shared wisdom about patience going both ways, and that’s important to take out of this space as well.
- For a number of years we have discussed how to deal with past motions, so it’s wonderful to see that there is now a process. Thought about rescinding/repealing/updated will be important for Youth Synod Council to consider through the year.
- One delegate noted that people see Jesus and think, ‘oh crap.’ Invitation to delegates to help friends and neighbours to see Jesus in a new way: radically inclusive, angry about injustice, sought to offer care, compassion and healing to the people he met. How do we extend that invitation to people in our lives?
