

Steven Hillel Paikin OC OOnt

Born in Hamilton, Steve Paikin is a treasured Canadian journalist, author, and documentary producer. Paikin has primarily worked for TVOntario (TVO), Ontario's public broadcaster, and is anchor of TVO's flagship current affairs program The Agenda with Steve Paikin.

After graduating from Hillfield Strathallan College, Mr. Paikin graduated with a B.A. from The University of Toronto and his masters in broadcast journalism from Boston University. Steve joined TVO in 1992, after having reported for the CBC, CBLT-TV, the Hamilton Spectator and CHFI. Before The Agenda with Steve Paikin started airing in 2006, he hosted Between the Lines, Fourth Reading, Diplomatic Immunity and Studio 2 for the network. Steve has also moderated election debates for both federal and provincial leaders. In addition, he has published books about politics and political biographies.

Mr. Paikin has received several honorary degrees from universities and colleges within Ontario, including McMaster University and Mohawk College; in addition he was appointed chancellor of Laurentian.

Away from the political sphere, Steve Paikin is a supporter of our own Hamilton Tiger-Cats, as well as The Toronto Maple Leafs and the Boston Red Sox.
