Leadership Grant: Grants to Individuals Application

Part 3

Leadership Grants Criteria
Attach documents to the application which respond substantively and concisely to the questions below. The attachments should not exceed three, double-spaced pages.
Vision-relevance	How would the programme/activity this grant would support enable the recipient(s) to engage the diocesan vision for ministry more effectively?
Excellence in ministry	Would the activity this grant supports build on pre-existing evidence of excellence in ministry? How would it foster excellence in ministry?
Opportunity to benefit	How would the recipient(s) actually have opportunities to realize the intended benefits?
Empowerment and maximal impact	How would the programme/activity that this grant would support empower people other than the grant recipient(s)? How extensive an impact would the programme/activity that this grant would support have? On whom?
Sufficiency	Specifically, what other sources of funding are being sought for this venture? For which sources are applications still pending? When will these applications be decided? Would the resources available through this grant and other confirmed sources be sufficient for this project?

Part 4

Personal Significance
Attach a document of no more than a page in length to the application which considers and responds substantively and concisely to the questions below.
What about the training and/or the ministry for which it will equip you engages your passion for ministry? How does this learning opportunity build on your past training or ministry experience? How do this training or ministry serve you in your spiritual journey as a disciple of Jesus?

Applicants are expected to solicit and obtain the written support of the relevant Corporation (especially for Doctor of Ministry programmes – including the Bishop’s Ministry Scholar Programme), Regional Archdeacon, Vision Group Convenor, and/or other appropriate diocesan leader (as determined in consultation with the Vision Advocate and Director of Human Resources). The resulting Letter of Commendation should be submitted directly and separately from the application.

Grants may be awarded subject to certain reporting and other possible conditions (often with the purpose of sharing the learning from this activity/programme more widely) specified at the time the grant is approved.

The Application and Letter of Commendation should be submitted in signed hard copy or digital scan to
